

Spiritual, Moral, Social and Cultural Education

What makes a good citizen?

Spiritual

- I can listen, think and reflect.
- I am interested in the world around me.
- I show respect for different faiths, feelings and values.
- I enjoy learning about other people.
- I have imagination and creativity in my learning.

Moral

- I know the difference between right and wrong and show this in my daily life.
- I understand that there are laws in our society (Civil and Criminal Laws of England).
- I make good decisions, thinking about the consequences of my actions.
- I am interested in the viewpoints of others.
- I show tolerance and respect for others (moral and ethical issues).

Social

- I work positively with others.
- I always join in fully in class and school.
- I can co-operate with people from different backgrounds.
- I understand that we have British Values and that I am part of society.

Cultural

- I show understanding and appreciation of other cultures.
- I know how other cultures have formed Britain.
- I understand that Parliament is central to my country.
- I always join in with artistic, musical, sporting and cultural activities.